ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

Mrs. Frances Johnson, an elderly lady, terday morning, and swore out a warpesterday morning, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of a young man named kamuel Johnson, employed as engineer's issistant on the ferry steamer Belle Haven, in a darge of having seduced, under promise of rowringe, her daughter, Margie Ryan, who is but seventeen years of age. The young girl is a resident of Fairfax county, but some time age was here on a visit to Mrs. George Baggott, on South Les street.
It was while on this visit, it is alleged, that young Johnson accomplished her ruin.
Bhe is a remarkably pretty girl, and very well developed for her age. The poor mother seemed almost heart broken, as the told the said story to the police. The officers both in this city and Washington have searched the Belle Haven several times during the stay, but no trace of Johnson can be found. The police here are of the opinion that he is concealed somewhere about the beat, and a close watch will be kept upon it, so that he can be captured should he attempt to come ashore.
